Are You Sowing the Seed?

Palmer Hartsough, 1888, 1896

1. Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom, brother, In the morning bright and fair? Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom, brother, In the heat of the noon-day's

2. Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom, sister, In the still and solemn night? Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom, sister, For a harvest pure and

3. Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom, brother, All along the fertile way? Are you sowing the seed of the kingdom, sister? You must reap at the last great glare? For the harvest time is coming on, white? And the reapers' work will soon be day! coming on,

Refrain

done;

Will your sheaves be many? Will you garner any For the soon be done collecting at the harvest home?