HENRY HADLEY
Op. 44 No. 2

Andante con moto

The sea heard, the deep sad sea—Throbb'd with one bitter secret more But set no murmur'ring rumor free, By wind or bird to cave or shore
The stars saw but no trembling star

Of all the wild bewitching train Has ever whisper'd from afar

The story of the hopeless pain

The night heard: but the silent night Unveils no tears, betrays no sighs: She wraps away from sound and sight spair-ing hearts and watch-ing eyes What if the night and stars and sea Should but for once their pledge forg-get And soft-ly breathe a-lone to
